Nominate Officers At Assembly Held In H.S. Auditorium

Petitions for Associate Student officers have been circulating this past week and nominations will take place in today's assembly.

Thus far petitions have been taken out for Delmer Brown, Bob Chapman, and Baxter Geeting for president. Abbot Mason and Stewart McPherson are up for vice-president; Dorothy Harman and Clara Kate Owens are in the running for secretary; and Bill Jerome and Vernon Valentine will enter the contest for treasurer.

Elections will be held this coming Monday, May 27, and "King's Day" will be one week from today, at which time the new officers will be installed. Students will vote in the Associated Student office.

College "Y" Host To High School Seniors

Seniors from Hi-Ys' near Santa Ana were invited to the regular meeting of the Y. M. held last night. Twelve visitors came from Orange, and Santa Anas was also represented.

Mr. Fisk lead the songs, starting with his masterpiece "Allawetta". An educational and helpful talk was given by Chuck Schweiso, Caltech "Y" secretary, on the subject "How We May Determine Our Future Vocations."

George Tobias introduced the officers for next year. George Warner will head the organization as president with the assistance of vice-president Bob Chapman. Frank Miles is the new secretary and Abbot Mason, treasurer.

Sophomores To Skate At Los Alamitos Rink

Los Alamitos skating rink will be the scene of the sophomore class party, Monday, May 27.

Skating will be enjoyed from four until seven after which a supper will be served. Eddie Gerhardt promises that the trip will be made in a truck.

Tickets will be on sale the remainder of the week for thirty-five cents. They can be secured from Eddie Gerhardt, Homer Humphrey, Ray Lindman, Naomi West or Madelyn Morelock.

Prizes Awarded For Best Whisker Crops

Beard and mustache growing has ceased to be one of the chief sports of the college for another year, since the 1929 crop of whiskers was judged at the dance last Friday night.

"Red" Gilman was awarded a black and white "whoopie" shirt with tie to match for growing the best combination of beard, mustache, and side burns. The prize was donated by Hill & Carden.

The second prize, was awarded to Abbot Mason for the best beard. The award was a mustache cup which Carol Bertolet, who presented the prizes, declares was given a Pharaoh of Egypt by Cleopatra in one of her fiery moments. Clark Brown was the donor of the cup, but didn't reveal how he came into possession of this historic article.

Bill Crawford received a Damascus steel razor for having the most unique beard. This prize was also donated by Clark Brown.

A bottle of hair growing tonic, given by Mrs. Sumner, was presented to Charles Adams for having the poorest excuse of a beard. The tonic is said to have been made from a recipe dating back to the civil war days when beards were beards. It is hoped that it will help Charles in his future efforts at beard growing.

Mr. Fisk, Mr. Glenn, Ted Cook, and Clem Cole from Notre Dame—all authorities on beards and mustaches—acted as judges for the contest.

"Fortune Teller" Almost Completed

Victor Herbert's comic opera "The Fortune Teller" to be given May 31 in the High School Auditorium will have futuristic settings. The scenery will be executed in the school system and some of Long Beach's scenes will be used. The opera will be put on by the combined glee clubs of high school and junior college under the supervision of Miss Myrtle Martin. The entire direction, staging and producing at the show is in the hands of Miss Martin who will be assisted by Mona Summers Smith, prominent local actress.

The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Mustol will play overtures and a small orchestra of picked pieces from the junior college and high school will play incidental music. This orchestra will be under the direction of Miss Martin.

Rehearsals are being held every night and Saturday afternoons, and the cast is working every spare moment on special songs and parts. The chorus has been chosen and is also practising every night with the cast.

High School Seniors Respond To Fiesta

That the fiesta was a great success is the expression heard from many students and visitors. Events of the day plainly showed that they were the result of much work and plans made far in advance.

Seniors from the neighboring high schools responded well to their invitations. Two hundred and fifty seniors attended the dinner, and two hundred the play "Macbeth". Due to activities at some high schools, a few seniors found it necessary to return home. The number of visiting seniors this year is contrasted with the one hundred and twenty-five of last year.

Committee chairmen especially deserve much credit for the success of the fiesta. Jimmy Roach, as fiesta chairman, had working with him Leonard Morris, finance chairman; Naomi West, morning entertainment; Felix Garnsey, construction; Joy Wilson, hospitality; Lyles McNairy, athletic events; Josephine Ball, luncheon; Wylie Carlyle, dance; Harry Van Gorkum, service exhibits.

Theatre Party

Members of the Associated Students are invited to attend the Press club theatre party at the Yost Broadway next Wednesday evening.

Tickets will be on sale soon and may be purchased by any junior college student. A good entertainment is promised by Carl Bergman, president of the Press club.

"Macbeth" Receives Favorable Comment

Mr. Phillips, the members of the cast, and all others who contributed to the success of "Macbeth", which was given as the climax of the Fiesta Day program, are to be congratulated upon their work.

The production, though a bold attempt for any junior college, has received favorable comment which compares it with professional work.

Remarkable indeed were the scenic effects produced by the Santa Ana thespians in this their second entrance into Shakesperian work. Much of the credit for stage sets goes to Harlan John, who designed the screens which were modernistic in treatment.

Mona Summers Smith, playing the lead, portrayed the ambitious supporter of her husband with splendid interpretation.

Adding to his reputation on the stage, Ray Lindman in the role of Macbeth gave his part as only one who had given endless hours of study and thought to Shakespere could do.

The lighting effects greatly aided the production, especially in giving the weird appearances to the witch scenes and adding to the impression of the sleep walking scene.

Credit goes to the rest of the cast which included: Bill Jerome, Arthur Gross, Paul Allen, Crawford Nalle, Edwin Gerhardt, Newell Vandermast, Harlan John, Minor Thompson, Frank Miles, Neil Harlow.

Roberta Eley, Florence Brownridge, Julia Bingham, Doris Robbins, Evelyn Robb, Clara Kate Owens, Sherrill Spurgeon and Madelyn Morelock.

Bachelors Host To Ladies At Banquet

Announcement was made early this morning that the Brotherhood of Bachelors would entertain their lady friends at a farewell banquet to be Monday evening, June 3. Plans for the annual affair were made last night at the Brotherhood meeting at the home of Chet Page.

At this time the new Grand Exalted and other officers will be installed. The banquet will serve as a farewell to the brothers that are graduating next month.

Kench Tanaka, new pledge, entertained the members last night with interpretation of "The Silent Hunter and the Fourteen Pound Ducks."

Beta Gamma Club To Abandon Beach Party

At a recent meeting of the Beta Gamma it was decided not to hold the annual beach party. The reason given was the great number of social activities which are scheduled for the next month.

Annual Banquet Last Function Of School Year

Plans for the "Annual Don Banquet" are now being made, according to Stewart McPherson, social commissioner, who will be in charge of the traditional final social event.

The date is June 12, and the time and place six thirty P. M. at the Santa Ana Country club. Since this is the night preceding graduation the banquet will mark the last get together of freshmen, sophomores, faculty and alumni.

Stewart McPherson announces that tickets will go on sale June 3, and will last until June 10, four P. M.

Students will pay seventy-five cents per plate for their tickets, the other seventy-five cents per plate being paid from the social fund. A one dollar and half dinner will be served; the menu will be announced later.

Ruth Tantlinger will make the programs and favors, and Abbott Mason, who decorated for the "Spring Hop", will have charge of the decoration for the banquet. Roberta Eley, La vinia Compton and Esther Guyton will sell tickets. Felix Garnsey will be transportation chairman, and anyone wishing a way is urged to see Garnsey.

Students are urged to save June 12 for the banquet. Faculty and alumni will be special guests. Further plans along with the menu and program will appear later.

Associated Women Nominate Officials

Officers of the Associated Women Students will be nominated at a meeting held after assembly today. Elections will take place next week some time.

Monday evening the cabinet had a dinner at Ketner's cafe. The remaining business of the year was transacted.

Music Conservatory Provides Assembly

A program from the Santa Ana Conservatory of Music, sponsored by the combined French clubs, is to be presented at today's assembly. Nominations for Associated Student officers will also be made.

A violin quartet including Elwood Bear, Georgia Belle Walton, Emalina Richards, and Peggy Warburton will entertain. Solos will be given by Thelma Stovall, vocalist; Prof. Cianfoni, trombonist; Allien Lair, pianist; and Edward Burns, cellist.

Editorial Comment

"Macbeth"

That the majority of people enjoyed the production of "Macbeth" we know. Because of the many problems involved in presenting such a play, the success is nothing short of marvelous.

Of course, we realize that no play can be perfect. Even on the professional stage slip-ups are bound to come. But we do think that a group of individuals that are given seats at prices even lower than the college students themselves and a special block of seats could at least have the courtesy to sit through the entire performance.

Plan for Next Year

Now that the end of our school year is almost here is a good time to think whether we have made our clubs and organizations really worth while campus activities. If we have not, it's too late to change matters now, but what's wrong with beginning to formulate plans for next year?

Club officers should be elected within the next week or two, so that old and new officers may get together and talk over as to what can be done to better the activity.

Boost Your Man!

Nomination speeches will be presented in today's assembly followed by the election a week hence.

In choosing a leader for next semester we must consider that his will be the huge task of welcoming and making several hundred freshmen feel at home. He will have to start the ball rolling. After things once get started it isn't so hard to keep things going.

'Stoo True

A man slightly under the influence of the good ole pre-war stuff made last week in Delhi, was staggering home at about three o'clock in the morning. He was walking as only a man could under the internal circumstances, and his face had that "pick me, I'm a daisy" expression.

He finally came to a house that looked familiar, and turned up the walk. But he wandered on to the grass and bumped into a small tree. Being much chagrined at that, he retraced his footsteps, and, acquiring a bit of farce, started forward and bumped into the same tree again. This process he repeated for about six times; and, at last he just took his hat off, and wiping his face with a handkerchief, lay down by the tree and said, "S'no ushe. Losht in an impenetrable foresht!"

Teacher: "Capt., are you ready for your lesson?"

Hylton: "Yeah."

Teacher: "What is a miracle?"

Capt.: "Well, if you see a cow in the middle of a field—that's no miracle."

Teacher: "Yes".

"Bushy": If you see a thistle in the middle of a field, that's no miracle."

Teacher: "Oh!"

"Blue eyes": Well, if you see a canary in the middle of a field singing—that's no miracle."

Teacher: "Well, I swan. My, My! This process he repeated for about six times; and, at last he just took his hat off, and wiping his face with a handkerchief, lay down by the tree and said, "S'no ushe. Losht in an impenetrable foresht!"

Hylton: "But, if you see a cow, in the middle of a field, sitting on a thistle, singing like a bird—That's a miracle!"

Cluck! Cluck!

In all my travels o'er land and sea, mostly land, I have never had the pleasure of seeing a hen actually pecking a rooster, nevertheless, we have the words "hen pecked". Solomon was supposed to be lucky with all his thousands of wives. Imagine his embarrassment, though if they all started pecking him at once.

Probably the champion henpecker of the world was Cleopatra. When she told old man Anthony to turn a back flip, he knew she meant it, and there wasn't any back talk. If Cleo had been satisfied with hen pecking one man at a time she might have been all right, but she tried to hen peck the whole Roman army and ended by dying from a snake bite.

Here in Santa Ana, among our Dons and Donnas, there has been a great deal of argument as to who is the more hen pecked, Chuck Young, Bud White, or Harold Watson. The majority seemed to think Bud looked a little more would that the rest of them. He has that weary droop of the shoulders, and a vacant look upon his face as if he were dreaming about the days of freedom and wondering if they would ever come again.

Harold is standing up under the strain a little better. Frequently he is seen to smile, nevertheless there is that hang dog look about him that can't be mistaken—Chuck, evidently, has been through the mill before; he actually likes it.

The bachelor's club is considering starting a drive for funds to start a home for the defenseless hen pecked college students. Wylie Carlyle has offered to act as cook when the home is finally established. The home, according to architect's plans, when seen from the outside, will look like a young fortress. There will be machine guns at every window—and some light artillery mounted on the roof.

More Bull

I thought I'd die before that dizzy bull-fight was over, last Friday. What with people shouting "Stick him in the window" and "Give the poor thing a rest". I couldn't really feel sorry for the animal so widely advertised on Durham tobacco.

It was pitiful the way the poor thing rammed the beautiful flowers decorating the stage and backed into the spectators. In fact, it was a breach of etiquette to so offend the guests. Eddie made up for that, though, when he and that dizzy gang came tearing in accompanied by red handkerchiefs and two calvarymen mounted on wild eyed steeds.

It was indeed a relief when Garnsey (no relation to Guernsey) sunk his sword into the Bull's neck. After a few more futile rushes at nothing in general and hitting it the poor thing lay down and croaked.

W. A. A. Banquet Tickets Changed From Eighty-five to Fifty Cents

Tickets for the W. A. A. banquet, which is to be held tomorrow evening at Ketner's, have been changed from eighty-five cents to fifty cents and must be purchased by 4 o'clock today.

Plans for the banquet are progressing rapidly, and the futuristic motif promises to be most attractive.

As this affair is the most important social event of the Women's Athletic Association, a large attendance is hoped for in order that this last get together may be a success.

The list of girls who are to receive points for baseball and tennis were approved by the cabinet at Tuesday's meeting and will be published some time soon.

W. A. A. sweaters were decided on at a recent meeting and Marian Bruner reports, that a sample will be here in about a week.

German Club Members Enjoy Plays, Poems

German club members enjoyed original plays and poems at the meeting held yesterday afternoon. Following a short business meeting, three original plays, written by Emma Lenhardt, Evelyn Armour, and Marcia Huber were presented.

Poems were read in German by Louis Remoff, Adelaide Mueller, Paul Mueller, and Elpha Thorndike. Reports of interest to the members on such subjects as German customs and "Der Dumkoff" were given.

Paul Mueller presided over the meeting. Miss Watson and Adelaide Mueller served refreshments of punch and cakes.

Occidental Studies Plan Graduation

Graduation week at Occidental college this year is to be the biggest in the history of the school, according to President Bird.

Friday evening, June 7, the president's reception for faculty and graduates will be held. Saturday there will be an athletic carnival and a tea in the gardens. Sunday will be the day for baccalaureate services, and Monday commencement exercises will be held in the Greek theatre.

Balboa will be the scene of the next C. S. C. convention, on May 25. The trip will be made entirely in private cars.

Honor Students Go To Riverside Today

Members of the Honor Society will leave this afternoon for Riverside where they will be guests of the faculty at a dinner at the Mission Inn.

Students will be treated to a guided trip through the inn before dinner. After dinner there will be an organ recital. The complete program for the afternoon has not been made known, but an enjoyable and instructive one is assured.

Students who plan to go this afternoon are Curtis Bowman, Eunice Bragg, Melva Fletcher, Mary Ford, Neal Harlow, Dorothy Harman, Dorothy Haynes, Marian Gardner, Wallace Grebe Phyllis Jamison, Edwin Gerhardt, Robert Lowry, Elizabeth Ma-teer, Helen Mayes, Leonard Morris, Corinne Nelson, Calvert Norland, Justina Palmer Helen Reynolds, Mary Richardson, Isabelle Siracusa, Mary Elizabeth Smith, Kasakon Tamuro, Ruth Tantlinger, Margaret Tedford, Eleanor Turner, Naomi West, Lena May Willsey.

"Tavern Post" To Appear May 28

"Tavern Post" the book of verse and prose published by the Literary club, will be sold to subscribers around May 28.

In order to ascertain how many copies to order, students are asked to fill out blanks indicating how many copies they wish. These blanks may be secured from any English instructor or from any member of the Literary club. The books will sell for fifteen cents each.

There will be thirty eight prose selections and thirty eight poems in the books, with a cover design of the Memorial Tavern. Prizes will be awarded to the two students who submitted the best prose selection and the best poem.

Cartoons Attract Interest At U. C. L. A.

Last week the Bruins started a series of novel cartoons featuring the honor spirit. This series will run until the end of the semester.

Titles of the group are surprising, and some agitation has been felt that the cartoons referred definitely to particular individuals. The artist is now publishing the titles several days in advance so that all who feel their reputations will be damaged by exposing the truth may leave town.

As a result of the Chronicle employment survey, it has been found that the working students of the junior college earn $158,547.60 during the course of a school year of forty weeks. There are 475 students who work out of a total of 1,210 replies. There are three geniuses who are paid $45 per week.

Opportunities are being offered to students to attend some of the best schools in the country during their special summer sessions.

From June 27, to August 11, courses will be offered under the supervision of the Council of Christian Association. Those taking up the courses offered by this institution will be known as "Students of Industry", since the students will work for seven weeks. At the end of this period the students will receive two semester hours of credit in "Labor Problems".

The course will start with a house party, so that the students may get acquainted, and have an opportunity to discuss the problems of the coming weeks. Students must find their own employment.

Mills College for women, offers four competitive scholarships covering the cost of tuition. Students rating in the upper tenth of the graduating class will be eligible for admittance.

The University of California is offering for those who desire it a course in subtropical horticulture. The course opens on July 1, and continues until August 22.

The American Academy of Dramatic Arts is offering a full schedule of classes commencing July 8, and closing August 18. It will be a teacher's summer course in stage craft. Some of the courses offered are as follows: voice and speech, pantomimic training, theatre art, dancing, and makeup and costuming.

Classes will open in Santa Ana for those who wish to make up work which they have missed. Frances E. Willard junior high school will open June 24, for those who wish to take advantage of the opportunity offered. Classes will be organized in elementary school courses, fifteen dollars being the price for the complete course. Junior high school courses will cost fifteen dollars for one course and twenty dollars for two. High school classes will be fifteen for one class and twenty-five dollars for two.

Appreciation Expressed

Members of the Don staff wish to express their appreciation to Mrs. Ellen Smith Thompson, who loaned the cut of the Spanish ship used in last week's Don. The cut was made by Mrs. Thompson in the household arts and crafts class, a junior college class open to adults.

Fullerton won the game in the fifth when the lone score was made by Dauser and Beatty and Korald got mixed up on an easy grounder which would have resulted in a double play.

Drysdale pitched great ball, several times having two men on base after there had been one away.

The infield gave Drysdale great support making all but one of their errors when they were not harmful.

Beatty handled about 10 perfect assists.

It looked as though Hughan was going to pitch a shutout game until the 6th when the Dons tapped him for some safe blows.

Drysdale possibly pitched the best game of his career.

Hughan whiffed 8 Don batters; Drysdale whiffed 7 Yellowjackets.

Koral poked one out for a two-bagger in the 9th and would have been a home run had it not been for a stiff wind.

The Dons should have scored in the 8th when they gathered two hits, but poor base running, was again to blame and Tanaka was caught on third base.

It was the last game of the season.

Bucs Overwhelm Jaycee Golf Team

The Don's Golf team had a disastrous week end when the Glendale Bucs invaded the sacred precincts of the Dons and took every match. The invaders took the four played matches by a good margin and as the Dons lacked a fifth man, they won the fifth by default. This defeat came as an upset for the boys had banked on winning this tournament. With the exception of the first match, the matches were pretty close. In one instance an extra hole had to be played to decide the winner and Bertolet lost his luck and Taggart won the match.

Watson and Daley played hard and lost two down, the matches being decided on the final holes. Gerhardt evidently was out of line for he was considerably off his game and lost to the crack first Glendale player, Mead, eight down and seven to play. This was a severe blow to the Dons for Eddie had expected to do better, but such is the game.

Donnas Win Both Baseball Games; Place in Swimming And Lose In Tennis at Play Day Saturday

At the play day held in Fullerton last Saturday Santa Ana won both baseball games, placed second in the swimming meet, and lost all of the tennis games.

Long Beach took first place in the swimming meet with 49 1-2 points, while Santa Ana placed second with 12 1-2. There were sixteen entries for most of the events with two heats for the speed contests. Considering the small amount of practice the Santa Ana team has had, it did very well.

Santa Ana received her score from one first place, one second, two thirds, and one tie for third. Mildred Staples took the first when she came in ahead in the 25 yard racing back stroke. Her time was 22 sec. Staples also took a third in the 50 yard dash, thus being the highest individual scorer for Santa Ana.

The second place was secured in the relay in which Bobby Goodrich, Charlotte Browne, Helen Richards and Jane Stewart took part. The other third was in the 25 yard dash, in which Browne placed first in her heat and third in the finals. Helen Lush tied with a Brawley contestant for third place in the side stroke for form.

Both of the ball teams played San Berdoon teams. The first team handily beat with a score of 11 -1 and the second team as easily beat with 10-2 as their score. Both teams played well with the pitchers, Goff and Prather, showing up especially well.
